

Blue Mountain Wildlife

Rehabilitation & Education

Internship Opening Now!

Applications Due March 31

You will work under supervision of center director Lynn Tompkins, an experienced & permitted rehabilitator.

Interns receive a $50 per week stipend!

Free housing is provided!

Gain hands-on experience in a variety of areas:

- Wildlife rehabilitation (including anesthesia, radiology, & hematology)
- Animal husbandry
- Captive animal management (including capture and restraint, medication, and fluid administration)

For information & application call 541-278-0215 or visit www.bluemountainwildlife.org